

School of Economics and Finance

Marie Skłodowska-Curie Individual Fellowships (2016 Call) European Commission H2020 Funding Opportunity

Call for Expressions of Interest

Marie Skłodowska-Curie Individual Fellowships

The School of Economics and Finance at QMUL (<http://www.econ.qmul.ac.uk/>) welcomes Expressions of Interest by postdoctoral researchers of any nationality, to apply jointly with a QMUL host supervisor to the EC Marie Skłodowska-Curie Individual European Fellowship Scheme under the 2016 call.

The Fellowship is a prestigious European funding scheme that supports mobility, career development, and training within and beyond Europe, and offers 12-24 months' highly competitive salary, a mobility allowance, family allowance and research funds.

Full details of the Scheme and application process can be found at:

EC Participant Portal for call information, guide for applicants and submissions

The call opened on 12 April 2016, and the final deadline date for applications is 14 September 2016.

Eligibility

- You must not have spent more than 12 months in the UK in the last 36 months prior to the EC call deadline
- You must have a PhD (or equivalent), or four years full time research experience

Funding

- Gross salary (€67,127 pa, including the UK country coefficient)
- Mobility allowance (€600 per month)
- Family allowance (€500 per month)
- Research, training and networking costs (€800 per month)
- Management and indirect costs (€650 per month to the host)

Research Areas

The School welcomes expressions of interest in the following areas:

- Applied microeconomics (labour, development, political economy, crime, education, health, public finance)
- Economic Theory
- Finance and financial econometrics

Expressions of Interest should consist of the following documentation:

- Cover letter
- A copy of your CV
- A 3-page research proposal summary

Please submit your EOI pack to Nicholas Owen, Research manager, n.j.owen@qmul.ac.uk, tel. +44 (0)20 7882 7298 by Friday 20 May, 2016.

EOI Results will be announced in early June 2016. Selected candidates will then be invited to prepare their full proposal with their supervisor.

Assistance with regards to proposal development and submission will also be provided by the QMUL Joint Research Management Office, EU Unit.

For more information please see

http://ec.europa.eu/research/mariecurieactions/about-msca/actions/if/index_en.htm